THE GRIZZLY 1975

Learning and living — that's what the educational experience is all about. It's gaining stature academically, morally and spiritually.

That's what we've been helping students do for nearly 50 years. Butler County Community College means experiencing the complete education.

L.W. Nixon Library Butler County Community College 901 South Haverhill Road El Dorado, Kansas 67042-3280 The complete education is composed of many factors, not the least of which is people. Butler County Community College has all kinds. They exhibit different personalities, different lifestyles and pursue different goals. But all of them — students, faculty and administrators — have something in common: a purpose and a will to achieve.

SHARE THE LIFE AND LEARNING EXPERIENCE

How close are you to the Butler County Community College experience? Are you so close to a part of it that you can't see the College in its entirety?

Take a look at the student body. They know what their obligations are to the future and they are striving to meet them.

They come from all over the state and from all over the country. What are they searching for? Many things. Some are looking to build a solid foundation for educational endeavors through our liberal arts program.

Others are wanting to learn a practical skill through vocational-technical training which will help lead to a rewarding career.

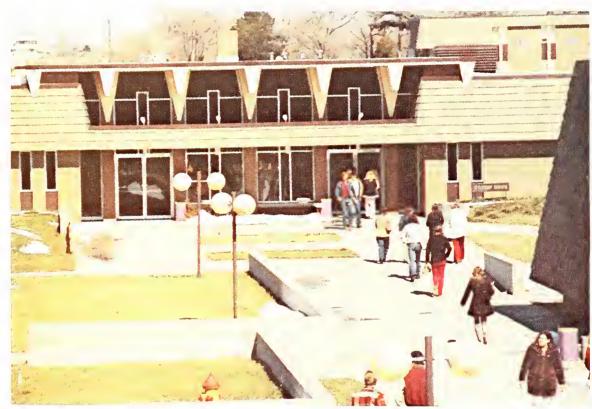

Are you so far away that you have yet to benefit from all the College has to offer? Take a second look — a closer look. Don't let it slip away.

А

What about the faculty? What are they looking for? Just like the students, their goals are many and varied. But one thing is certain. They are attracted to Butler County Community College's philosophy of education. They like the close contact with their classes. They like the fact they don't have to face a hundred students in an impersonal lecture hall situation.

It's the one-on-one teaching philosophy that Butler County Community College thrives on. Both students and faculty wouldn't have it any other way.

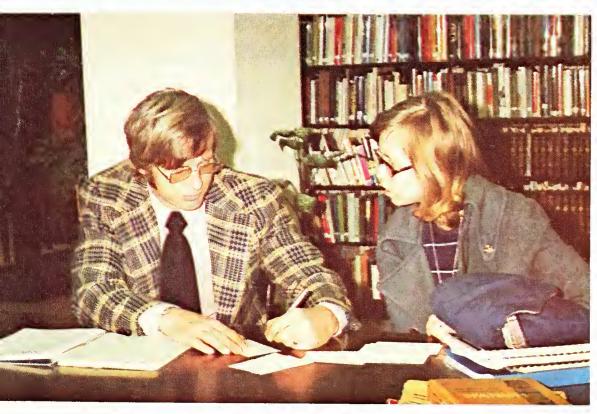

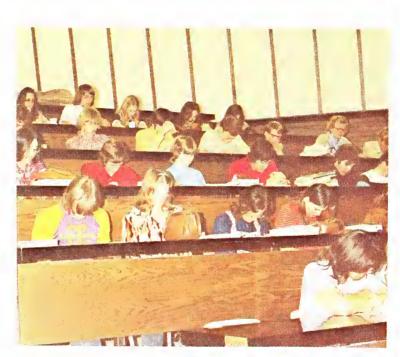

Remember the people, the activities, the good times. Despite the hardships, it will be the fond memories that will accompany you the rest of your life. Just wait and see.

You'll find that the BCCC environment provides the best for learning and living. In addition to classes, the College offers a wide range of cultural, social and athletic activities.

Honor societies include Delta Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity, and Phi Ro Pi, national debate and forensics fraternity. There are also campus organizations for students interested in politics, 4-H, ecology, flying, and drafting, among others. The Juco Voices, Clef Dwellers, and Collegiate Singers provide ample opportunity for the musically inclined to become involved.

The El Dorado Community Concert Association sponsors a series of concerts each season, featuring famous artists and groups. The campus is also the scene of prominent speakers and other guest artists.

ENVIRONMENT FRIENDLY, HEALTHY

The College's proximity to the metropolitan environment of Wichita also provides numerous outlets for culture and entertainment. For instance, the city is the home of the world famous Wichita Symphony Orchestra, two museums and three colleges which contribute to the area's cultural and entertainment potential.

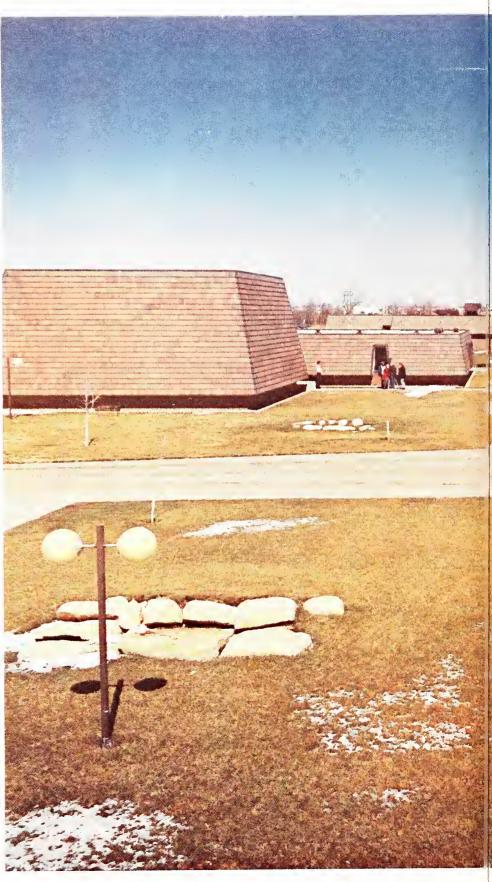

BCCC is a well-known and successful member of the Kansas Jayhawk Junior College Conference and the National Junior College Athletic Association. Football, basketball, track, cross country and golf are offered on the intercollegiate level.

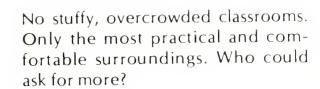

A variety of sports are also sponsored on an intramural basis for men and women. Women also have the opportunity to join the College drill team, the cheerleading squad or the pep club.

The College operates three publications for student involvement: the student newspaper, the Lantern; the year-book, the Grizzly; and the creative writing publication, the Quill.

The ultra-modern Butler County Community College campus is a milestone in functional academic architecture.

The spacious 80-acre campus features a dozen new air-conditioned buildings, including a laboratory science building, academic building, lecture hall, three vocational-technical buildings, fine arts complex, physical education facility, student union, comfortable residence hall, and a library-student activities building.

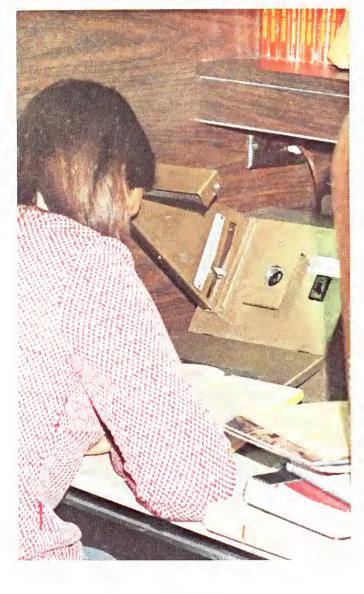

The beautiful two-story Lester W. Nixon Library is centrally located on the campus and houses the Counseling Center, a reading laboratory and a photo production area.

The library area itself contains media and seminar rooms and 23,000 volumes, with ultimate expansion to 50,000 possible. Many periodicals and microfilm sources are also ready for use.

FACILITIES UNPARALLELED

A modern library, up-to-the minute audio-visual facilities, a comfortable residence hall. It's learning and living made fun.

10

The Programmed Learning Center is also located in the library. It contains a modern practical language laboratory which is a multi-media facility. It allows students to upgrade their skills in specific areas, such as reading, spelling, and vocabulary. The center gives students the chance to pursue areas of interest beyond or in addition to the limits of an organized class.

Few colleges offer such a far-reaching selection of courses — from the liberal arts to vocational-technical to adult education.

CURRICULUM A COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

BCCC offers more than just exceptional facilities and a dedicated faculty. We have the curriculum to match. Whether you lean toward a complete liberal arts approach or vocational-technical training, we have the comprehensive courses to meet your needs. And we have extensive adult education offerings in many fields as well.

Butler County Community College offers the Associate of Arts Degree, the Associate of Applied Science Degree, the Two-Year Community College Certificate, and the Vocational Certificate.

The Associate of Arts Degree may be earned in all areas and is primarily oriented toward the Baccalaureate Degree. The Associate of Applied Science Degree, the Two-Year Community College Certificate, and the Vocational Certificate are primarily designed for immediate employment.

Degrees may be earned in major areas such as: Pre-teaching, Pre-engineering, Pre-law, Data Processing, auto mechanics, welding, liberal arts, etc.

This is just a sampling of the areas from which you can choose. Each course is geared to the Twentieth Century problems and solutions. They are meant to provide you with the skills you need to advance to further education or start a rewarding career.

But no matter which area you choose to explore, you'll find it aimed at one objective — providing you with the training necessary to meet your educational and career objectives in the shortest practical amount of time.

It's been stimulating, it's been challenging, and it's been rewarding. We're all better prepared for what tomorrow will bring.

BCCC students have discovered many positive aspects about the College's curriculum. One is its flexibility. You won't be locked in one rigid academic framework from start to finish.

Instead, you'll be able to structure your own academic program to a great extent and delve into independent study and research.

To insure that your skills are put to use, our placement service starts working well in advance of your graduation to help you find a position best suited to your training and capabilities.

It's only been a small time in a small place. But it's been an experience worth saving forever. Take a second look.

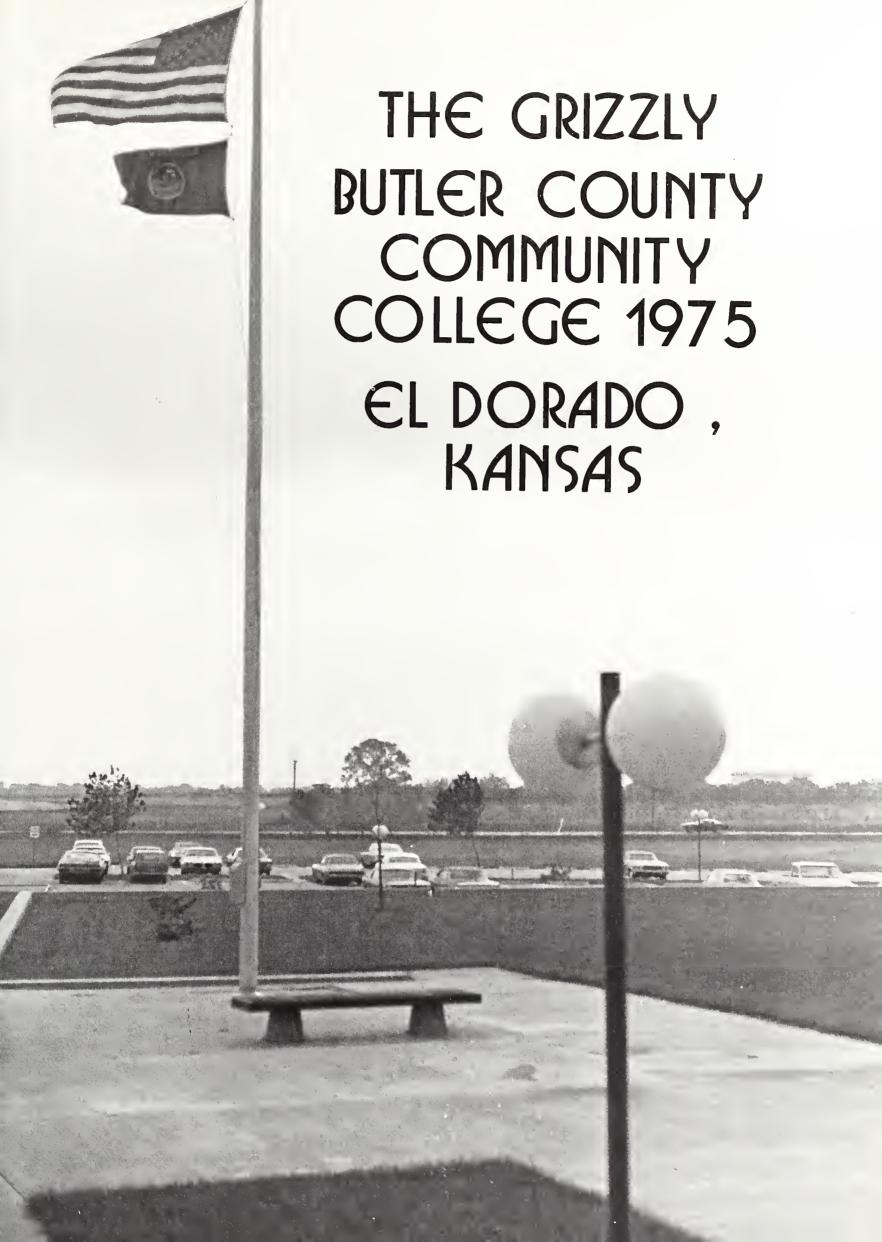

Butler County Community College is many things today. It is composed of buildings, classes, activities, and especially people. They are delicately combined to form a place and a community.

The Butler County Community College of today will not be the same place tomorrow. Like all academic communities, it is not a static arrangement. It's alwa changing. There will always be new people, new ideand new challenges. The constant change is who makes a college community a vibrant and worthwho experience. It's a great place to have fun, to plan, at to build for tomorrow. Why not take a closer look the Butler County Community College life? It may just the answer for you.

THE PRESENT

THE FUTURE

"A community college means education and service to all in the community regardless of age or background."

Education For All:

President Edwin J. Walbourn

Edwin J. Walbourn, President of Butler County Community College, has played an integral part in the growth of the college since he arrived at El Dorado Junior College in 1952 when the school had an enrollment of 265 students.

President Walbourn taught at El Dorado High School for one year beginning in 1951, and then transferred to the junior college as an instructor. He became an administrator when he was named Dean of the College, the highest administrative post at that time.

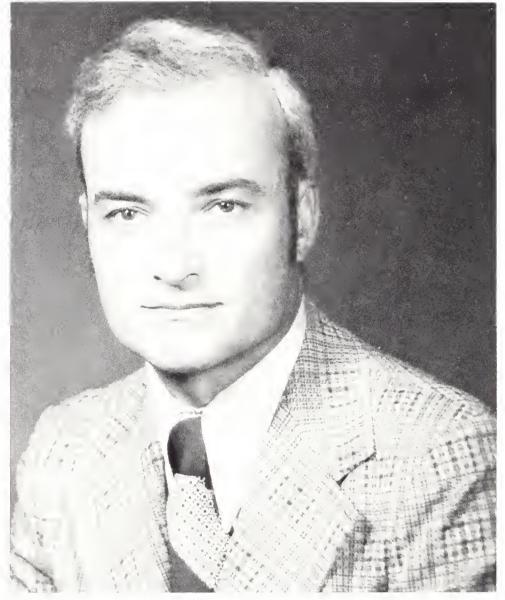

When the voters of Butler County elected to accept El Dorado Junior College as a county institution in 1963 and the Board renamed the school Butler County Junior College, Edwin J. Walbourn was named as its first president.

Enrollment at the school continued to increase, and the electorate voted bonds in the amount of $1, 998,000 for the construction of a new campus in 1964. In 1966, BCJC moved to its new site.

During President Walbourn's tenure, he has seen the enrollment grow to its peak of 1500 students in the 1970-71 school year. Although the enrollment, following national trends, has now leveled off, the President feels that new course offerings to meet the community needs will help maintain enrollments.

New Vice President Named To Campus Administration

"Education should be a life-long experience." — Dr. Carl Henrich, Vice-President

Dr. Carl L. Heinrich

Dr. Carl L. Heinrich was appointed this academic year to the newly created position of Vice President of Butler County Community College.

The new vice president came to the campus from Emporia Kansas State College where he was associate professor of education and the director of community college education.

He was graduated from Kansas State University with a B.S. degree, and he received his M.S. degree from Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia. Dr. Heinrich earned his Ed. D. degree from the University of Kansas.

The new administrator assumed varied duties at the college with special emphasis on community relationships.

Dr. Heinrich is married and the father of four sons.

Board Of Trustees Decides Policy

Members of the Board of Trustees are duly elected officials of Butler County who make the policies for BCCC.

The year 1975 was marked by budget tightening in most departments of the college. This economy was brought about by a decrease in enrollment of full-time equated students which resulted in a decrease of state aid to Butler.

Two innovations this school term approved by the Board were the establishment of Project Outreach and the establishment of a downtown branch for the Adult Resource Center.

Kay Brickley Is Homecoming Queen

Kay Brickley, El Dorado sophomore, was elected 1974 Homecoming Queen by the student body. She was crowned at half-time ceremonies during the October 19 football game with Highland College.

Miss Brickley's first attendant was Deby Martin, Madison sophomore, and Sherri Waltman, El Dorado sophomore, was second attendant.

A Homecoming Open House was held on the campus Saturday afternoon preceding the game.

Homecoming festivities opened with a pre-game bonfire attended by spirit-filled students. Students danced following the game.

Different Strokes For Different Folks

AUTUMN ON THE CAMPUS brings on the perennial flood of the band room floor and a flood of new faces in the classroom. Lonnie Ackley sweeps up the water in the music room while Jan Falkner's monkey (who made it through enrollment with no problems) provides the new face.

A NEW SCHOOL TERM always brings on creative inspiration. Jim Wyant shears a sheep to illustrate his speech for class. An art student seeks inspiration in the late summer sun.

'Anastasia' Opens Season

Opening the dramatic season of the Community College Theater was the presentation of ANASTA-SIA staged in the Fine Arts Auditorium in October.

The drama is centered on the possibility that the daughter of Czar Nicholas of Russia escaped execution and was still alive in the early 1920's.

Darrel F. Patten directed and staged the play for a three night run with a cast of 13 students and faculty.

Included in the cast were Tim Sidebottom, Debbie Staats, Daniel Queen, Steve Dickson, Dan Ross, Janet Cummins, Sterling Johnson, Mike Dillman, Michelle Banks, Douglas Dennis, Patricia Lowrance, Debbie Peterson, Gregory Leafty.

THE DOWAGER Empress converses with her companion, the Baroness Livenbaum (Debbie Peterson).

Noel Coward Hit Presented By Players

"Blithe Spirit" by Noel Coward was the second theatre presentation of the season staged by BCCC.

The ageless sophisticated farce of English manners was presented three nights in December under the direction of Darryl Patten.

Crew members are shown in an informal pose during rehearsal. They are (1) Debbie Staats, Greg Leafty, Steve Hyle, Allen Paul, Marjorie Marsh (musician), Ed Swift.

Cast members shown are (2) Debbie Peterson. (3) Terri Chamberlain, Sterling Johnson, Gail Staotts, Debbie Peterson. (4) Sterling Johnson, Gail Stoots.

Theatre Features 'Elegant Witch'

"The Elegant Witch," a children's theatre production, was presented to thousands of children in both El Dorado and Wichita by the BCCC theatre group during February.

For the past 7 years, the Butler theatre group has been involved in a Children's Theatre and during that time has performed throughout Kansas and in other states.

Darryl Patten directed the play.

Campus Crusade Group Has Largest Attendance

The honor of having the largest attendance of any club on campus goes to Campus Crusade (CATGIF) who reached the goal of 100 persons attending one meeting in October.

The organization's aim is to reach out to students on campus bringing them closer to Jesus Christ through sharing, praising the Lord, and loving one another.

Each week the group meets during Activity Period to hear speakers or to have special programs and to share fellowship. Campus Crusade had a Christmas banquet and a spring banquet.

GUITAR MUSIC for Christians is furnished by Bill Dahlenburg at the meetings while the membership joins him in song. BSU Recruits New Students

AWAITING ARRIVAL OF GUESTS on Minority Recruitment Day are BSU members (From 1.) Robert Williams, Greta Underwood, Venessa Ford, Henry Kittle, Felicia Wigley, Glenn Hersey, Larry Martin, Mike Trammel.

The Black Students' Union enjoyed its most successful year in the club's existence at Butler. Although the membership is small, the majority of black students on the campus belong.

Minority senior day on the campus was sponsored and carried out by BSU membership and was well attended by students from a number of schools in Kansas. BSU members met the high school visitors when they arrived, escorted them over the campus, took them to lunch, gave a banquet in their honor, took them to a basketball game, and topped off the evening with a dance.

Other activities during the year included a skating party and a bake sale.

Officers include Junetta French, president; Robert Williams, vice president; Jan Wimbley, secretary; Erma Combs, treasurer; Paul Pete, student council representative. Mrs. Mary Jo Grant is sponsor of the group.

A Student Newspaper Serving Butler County Community College

Newspaper Creates Reader Reaction

Eagerly awaited each week by the students and faculty is the latest edition of THE LANTERN, the award-winning newspaper which is sometimes maligned but never ignored.

The lively news and outspoken editorials of THE LANTERN sometimes cause a feeling of discomfort or chagrin among the administration; nevertheless, the paper is unhampered by censorship or controlled editorial policy.

Policy, content, and style of the paper are determined entirely by the student editorial board with the guidance of Bill Bidwell, faculty adviser.

Members of the newswriting, editing, and photo journalism classes prepare all the copy and photographs, layout the pages, and do the actual paste-up for the paper.

Band Small In Number, Large In Sound

The band at Butler is small in number and does not own any fancy uniforms. But what it lacks in number, it makes up for in quality and enthusiasm.

Band members appear at most of the athletic functions in the form of a pep band, adding atmosphere and excitement to the occasion.

At more state affairs, the instrumentalists perform in the stage band.

Under the direction of Robert D. Anderson, band members also perform in a jazz music group.

Director Anderson and faculty members Loren Brinkmeyer and Bill Bidwell oftentimes take to their instruments and join the students in their public performances.

Collegiate Singers Popular Vocal Group

The Collegiate Singers made numerous public appearances both on and off campus this year.

Under the direction of Darryl Patten, the singers perform both popular and classical music.

Student Council Sponsors Many Events

The BCCC Student Council is comprised of representatives from the two classes and from campus organizations.

The Council is divided up among committees such as committees on parking, scholarships, school conditions, extra curricular activities, and social service.

The Council sent a representative to Topeka this year to represent the school in the Kansas Association of Community Colleges. Delegates also attended a conference in Wichita.

Several successful Red Cross blood drives on the campus were sponsored by the Council.

Social life was not overlooked in that the Council sponsored several dances following athletic events including the popular "50's Dance." The big social event of the year is the Fiesta Park party held in the spring.

Elected officers of the group include Greg Cooper, president; Eric Stahl, vice president; Debbie Duncan, secretary; John Geckles, treasurer. Jeanetta French is promotions chairman. Judy Strain is the faculty sponsor.

Cheerleaders Lead On

As hardworking as any male athlete for whom they cheer are the cheerleaders for the Grizzlies. The same cheerleaders generate enthusiasm for both the football team and the basketball team beginning in September and ending in March, on road trips as well as home games.

Members of the squad are Debbie Peterson, Debbie Martin, Wendy Skinner, Kathy Allison, Vanessa Ford, Rene Holinde, Joan Farr. Miss Jeanette Maline is sponsor.

Counselors And Coaches Keep Active

Coaches and counselors have something in common on a college campus: both have a close personal relationship with the students. These personnel get involved in the students' academic, personal, and emotional adjustments.

(1) Curtis Shipley, head basketball coach, physical education; (2) Jeanette Malone, women's coach, physical education; (3) Victor Bland, guidance counselor, placement; (4) Jim D'Alesio, assistant football coach, recruitment.

Women's Volleyball Posts 6-9 Record

Butler County women's volleyball team ended its season in November with a 6-9 record.

"All the players on our team are freshmen except one, so we ought to have a strong team next year," Jeanette Malone, coach, said.

The final encounter found Butler women going 1-1 in a double match against Allen County.

Community college teams encountered by the women volleyball players included Allen County, Cowley County and Dodge City.

Honeybears Provide Game Entertainment

One of BCCC's most popular entertainment groups is the Honeybears, the college drill team.

The Honeybears performed regularly during half-time at BCCC athletic functions. They entertained at El Dorado's 103rd birthday celebration, plus other local functions.

The women enrolled in drill team receive one semester hour credit for the activity but may only participate for two semesters.

Jeanette Malone, physical education instructor, is director of the group.

Cross Country Scores High In

Nationals

Keeping up the tradition for BCCC, the Cross Country team came through with another winning season for Coach Ollie Isom. The team won first place in all seven of its meets including Region VI National Junior College meet.

The regional win entitled the runners to compete at Eugene, Ore. in the Nationals where the team came in tenth.

Jim Gifford scored individual honors by being the Region VI individual champion. He then qualified as All-American in the Nationals in Oregon by placing eighteenth.

New Coach, New Ballgame; Season Ends With 2-8

Football '74 found Butler with a new head football coach, Jerry Boyce, and a new assistant, Jim D'alesio, both coming in from Kansas City prep coaching. They were assisted by returning assistant coaches Ev Kohls and Dale Remsberg.

The team was comprised of a young, inexperienced group and ended the season 2 and 8, defeating Haskell and Cowley Co.

Coach Boyce: "My first year at Butler as head football coach and athletic director has been a learning experience. I feel that our total athletic program has great potential, but that potential has never been completely developed.

I feel that this is a job that requires the combined efforts of all the coaches, the administration, the faculty, and the student body. I look forward to next year with enthusiasm and optimism."

Basketball Deemed Building Season

The 1974-75 season for Butler County was deemed to be a rebuilding year for the Grizzlies. With only two returning players, Coach Curt Shipley had to go with 11 freshmen against the always tough JayHawk Juco Western Division.

Past mid-season, the record stood at 5-15 with the team beginning to show maturity.

Box scores and final team standings will appear in the summer supplement of the Grizzly.

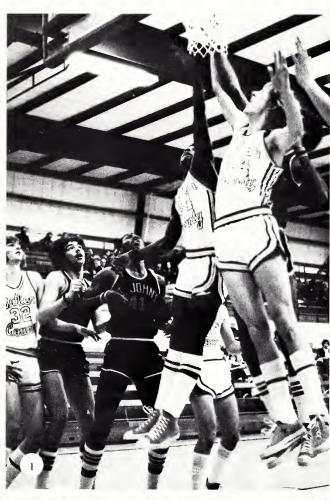

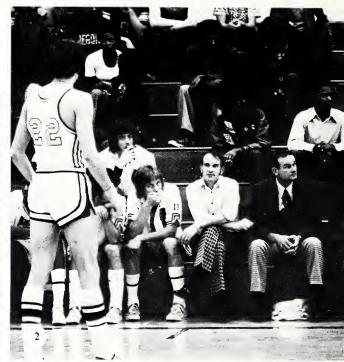

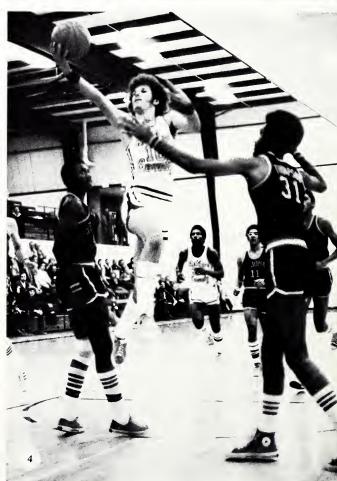

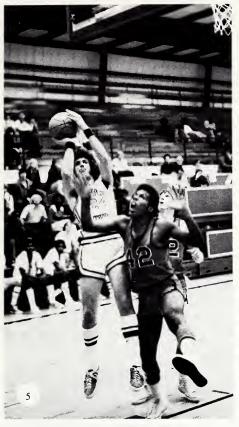

Although it couldn't be considered a winning season, the team did break 100 points the first time when it defeated Cowley County. (1) Holmes, Diskin, and Kuhn battle with St. John's. (2) Major outreaches an opponent. (3) Strong struggles to recover the ball.

The Faculty: In Classrooms, In Offices

Faculty members of BCCC are career teachers who pride themselves on doing a professional job of teaching while still finding time to know most of their students personally.

Instructors maintain an open-office policy whereby students find that they have easy access to their instructors for additional help or guidance.

Sophomores are involved in both college life and community life. The local drive for blood donors found sophomore Debbie Duncan, along with numerous others, responding. Debbie sat in line with thermometer in mouth and release form in hand waiting her turn to donate her blood.

Second Semester Finds More Sophomores

Total number of students enrolled second semester was 1,509 as compared to 1,301 first semester.

There are 905 students enrolled from Butler County, 570 are from other counties in Kansas, and there are 34 foreign and out-of-state students.

Project Outreach, the process of spreading the college over the county, contributed as many as 150 students. Classes offered at McConnell Air Force Base through BCCC have enrolled approximately 101 students.

Freshmen: Enrollment Down

The number of freshmen enrolled this year was down compared to the past few years. This drop was attributed to the fact that less high school seniors were graduated in the spring coupled with the fact that jobs are plentiful and many students opted to work rather than go to school.

Officers of the freshman class include Michael Slabaugh, president; Ann Fennell, vice—president; Pam Maline, secretary-treasurer. Sheila Alley, Arnold Shinner, and Mike Stahl are class representatives.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALLER Rocky Higgins finds that a first year man on the campus takes a lot of orders including from the coaches.

Secretaries And Staff Make Things Happen

An old adage is that if you want an answer to a question, always ask a secretary. This holds true at BCCC.

The secretaries and the staff members make a valuable contribution to the college by keeping the day to day operations functioning properly.

In the lower photo are Pat Place, secretary to the Dean of Students, and Ethyl Lange, secretary to the President and Vice-President.

Buildings And Grounds Require 24 Hour Work

On duty 24 hours a day are the people concerned with the maintenance of the buildings and grounds.

Most of the buildings on the campus are now ten years old, yet they are still as sparkling clean as the day the doors opened. The grounds are landscaped and "manicured" which gives an overall pleasing look.

An unusual amount of snow during the winter kept crews busy clearing parking lots and sidewalks.

Nelson H. (Nubs) Nelson is the new superintendent of buildings and grounds at BCCC this year. He oversees a large staff of men and women whose jobs vary.

At left, Nelson checks out to see that the sidewalks are cleared of snow. Below, Nelson and Dennis Zuercher confer about the shingles which predominate the architecture of the buildings.

Independent Study Center Emerges As Separate Entity

The Center for Independent Study has approximately 120 students per semester taking advantage of its courses offered in supplementary, supportive, audio-visual, and programmed materials.

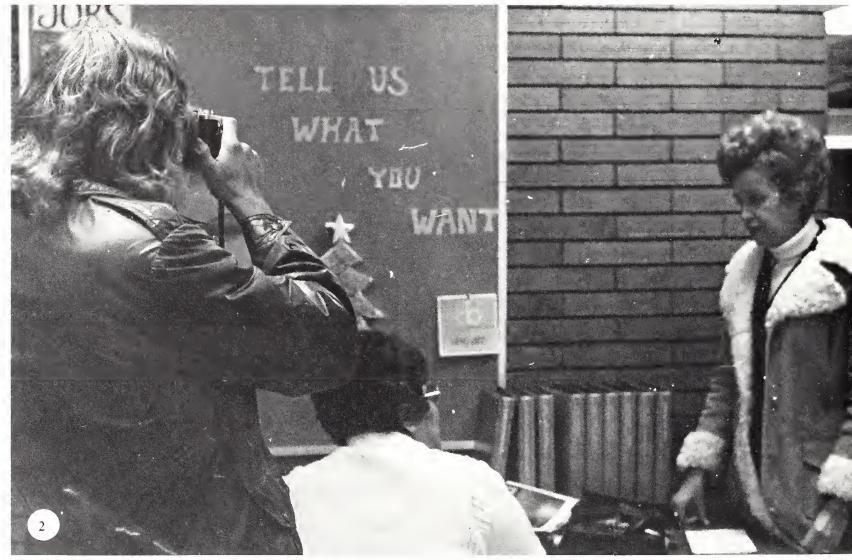

Formerly, the newly-named center called the Programmed Learning Center and was alligned with the Adult Basic Education program. When the ABE expanded and moved downtown, the Center expanded and became the Center for Independent Study.

Mrs. Mary Jo Grant is director of the Center and is assisted by a professional, Dody Anderson; and three para-professionals, Kaye Krause, Cindy Anderson, and Vickie Coffell.

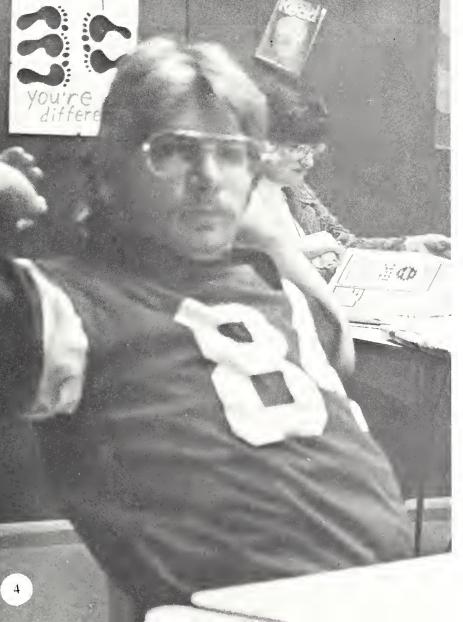

The Center is also involved with the Vocational-Technical division in Project Success, a federally funded division.

Special emphasis is placed on helping the student to develop communications skills at the Independent Study Center.

BCCC Reaches Out

A new concept for college expansion was developed at BCCC this year and was given the appropriate title of "Project Outreach."

Under the plan, the faculty and administration take educational programs directly to the people in various communities of Butler County and to McConnell Air Force Base in Wichita. In effect, new college campuses are being established.

By the beginning of second semester, outreach classes had a total of 228 students enrolled with an additional 101 students enrolled at McConnell.

Project Outreach is now established at Andover, Rose Hill, Augusta, Remington, Flint Hills, and McConnell.

Courses range from metrics to "slimnastics." Subjects offered include both credit and non credit courses.

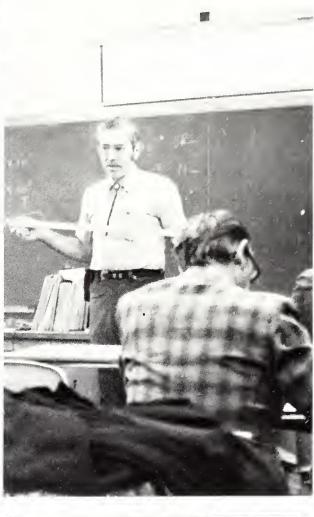

Dr. Carl Heinrich is director of the project.

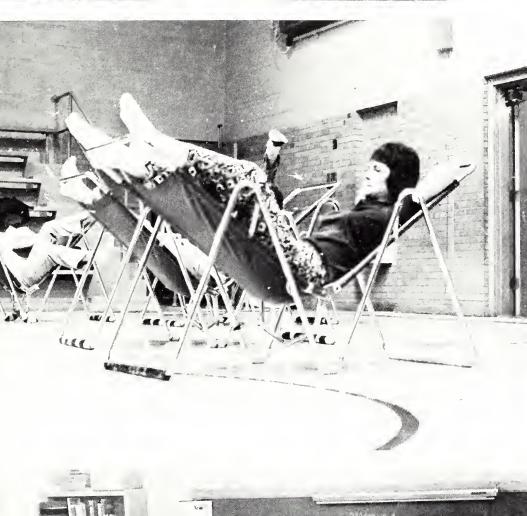

Enthusiasm High For New Project

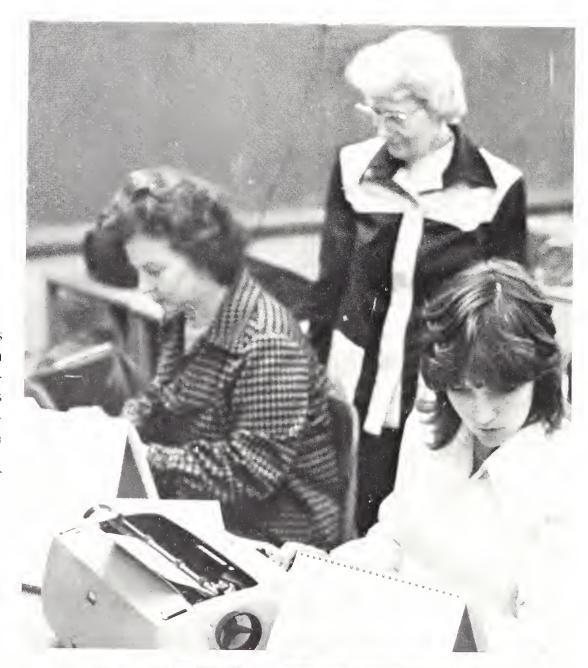

'What You Want Is What You Get'

Courses of study at the various "campuses" of Project Outreach depend on what the students involved want. Academic subjects as well as non-credit self-improvement studies are offered. In photo right, students of typing at Andover under the direction of Dr. Vietoria Daily are shown working on their assignments. Below, Dean of Instruction Ron Wilson, and Ted Wischropp, director of night classes, confer with two sergeants at McConnell AFB concerning student transcripts.

Adult Resource Center Moves Uptown

Mary Lou Stebbins welcomes a new student.

Another new "campus" was established this year when the Adult Resource Center moved uptown to 126 East Second St. The Center had been functioning on campus as part time operation since 1967.

The ARC offers numerous programs in training and education ranging from preparation and study for the GED test to learning crafts.

The attractively decorated Center is a scene of much activity as adults study for the high school equivalency diploma on programmed learning equipment or work on various handicrafts.

Joy Choens is supervisor of the Center, and Mary Lou Stebbins is learning co-ordinator. Other associates include Vince DeCanto, Gay Isom, and Beverly Pettus. Mary Seymour and Harriet Dettwiler are part time instructors. Dr. Carl Heinrich, vice-president of BCCC, is director of ARC.

Satellite programs of ARC are also offered in the communities of Rose Hill, Andover, and Augusta.

Joy Choens, center, directs a programmed listening session.

'Grizzly' Staff Small But Dedicated

The fact that "The Grizzly" only had four or five members for most of the year was only one of the difficulties besetting the yearbook.

"The Grizzly" and "The Lantern" staffs share the same lab (sometimes simultaneously) and confusion was rampant among the debris.

Nevertheless, good humor prevailed and the book was finally "put to bed" with substitution pages for some forever misplaced page layouts.

First semester staff members include Tim Browning (chief photographer), Mark Holmes, Steve Kuh, Cherilee Shiroky, and Jan Wimbley. Tim graduated at the end of first semester, but returned second semester to give the staff an assist. Jan left the staff second semester and Gwen Genter joined. Jo Ann Rogers was instructor and adviser.

A Dedication To Tim A. Browning 1953-1975

The news of Tim Browning's death on February 26, 1975 shoeked and saddened the faculty and students of Butler County Community College.

Tim had been a staff member of the 1974 Grizzly as well as the ehief photographer for the 1975 Grizzly.

His work on the 1975 yearbook was finished; and just a few days before his death, Tim was in elass making plans for shooting pietures for the summer supplement of the book.

Tim was a quiet person with great determination which resulted in splendid success with his photography.

The staff members and adviser of the yearbook respected Tim's ereativity and judgment. For that reason, they merely made suggestions to him as to the nature of needed photographs and then Tim developed the suggestions in whatever manner he thought best. The results were excellent.

Tim had set for himself the goal of becoming a professional photo-journalist, a goal which he would have undoubtedly attained had he lived.

In his memory, a photo-journalist, seholarship has been set up at BCCC by family and friends.

The staff of the 1975 Grizzly would like to dedieate this book to Tim, without whose supreme effort it would not have been much of a book.

Track Gets Stymied In Second Place

The BCCC track team finished second in the Jayhawk Junior College Conference this year being topped only by Hutchinson. Butler grabbed more first places by lacked depth in the team to maintain points.

It was the same story at the Region VI track championships: Butler finished second to Hutchinson although the Grizzlies did not field a full team. BCCC had three regional champions: Rod Brown in the mile, Mark Newland in the three mile, and Willie Bell in the 220.

Butler won its own annual invitational by sweeping all but three events.

Women's Track On Its Way At BCCC.

After two years of active competition in women's inter-collegiate track, Butler is still small in number of women competing but high in enthusiasm.

The season ended with a number of women still in competition, all of whom were doing well in their individual specialities.

Competing for BCCC were Vanessa Ford in the 100 yard dash; Debbie Tyson, Vona Rader and Dee Ann Walker in the 100 meter hurdles; Diane Gower, Rader, Ford and Tyson in the 440 yard relay; Janet Cummins, Gower, Ford and Tyson in the 880 yard relay; Cummins in the 880 yard run.

In other events Pam Van Buren competed in the high jump; Monesia Storey, Kit Isbill and Donna Wallace in the discus; Van Buren and Tyson in the long jump; and Storey and Isbill in the shot put.

Individual women placed high in a number of the track and field meets although the team did not win any firsts. The women as a team placed third in the Hesston meet.

Jeanette Malone is coach for the women tracksters.

Golf Team Ranks Fifth At Regionals

The Butler County golf squad placed fifth in the Region VI tournament held at Wichita State.

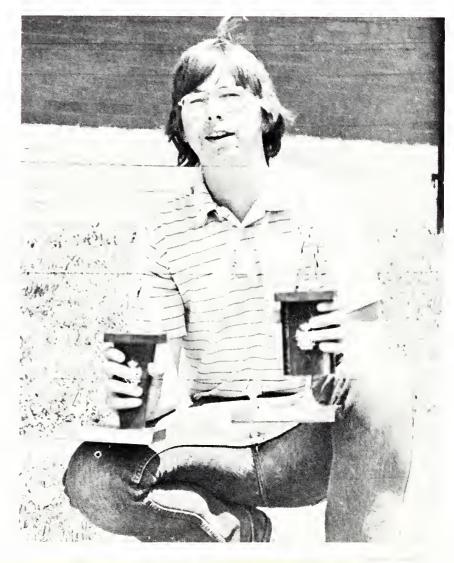

One of the Grizzly golfers, Mitch Merril, qualified for the nationals at the regional by defeating two other golfers in a playoff.

At the Butler County Invitational, BCCC placed third in a field of 13 teams with Colby and Seward County coming in first and second.

Merrill was medalist at two tournaments attended by the squad.

As the spring season ended, the Grizzlies had improved enough that they had moved from last place to fifth place in the Jayhawk Juco Conference standings.

Jerry Boyce coached the golfers.

Intramurals Attract Participants

THE WINNING INTRAMURAL VOLLEYBALL team members are (Sitting) Jim Richmond, Mike Esau, Alan Hoggatt Standing are Debi Martin, Joni Blanding and Debbie Vogts. These players won the co-ed tourney.

MIXED BOWLING champions of intramural play include (From L.) Roger Ruark, Pat Gull, Billie Grosch and Cary Ruark. Winners of singles tournament include women: Nikki Needham, Carol Milner. Men: Don Doty, Mark Hale.

Collegiate 4-H Serves Communities

The Collegiate 4-H Club is primarily a service organization at Butler.

In the fall, members worked at the 4-H Foodstand at the Hutchinson Fair in order to raise money for the club.

The club conducted 4-H officer training for all 4-H clubs in Cowley county in October.

Members of the club served as judges for 4-H Days in Harvey, Cowley and Butler counties. (Pictures this page show members engaged in judging entries at the Cowley county meet.)

The Collegiate 4-H Club attended the national conference at Manhattan.

Deca Members Rank High In Contests

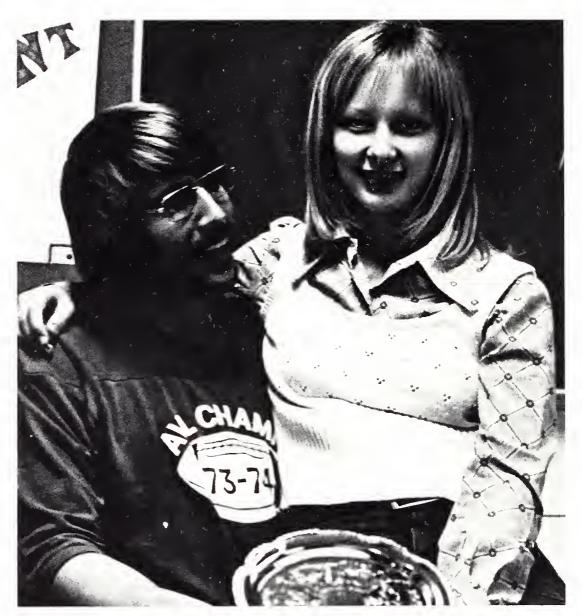

The Deca club at BCCC is designed for students enrolled in distributive education and promotes a program teaching management and merchandising.

The Butler chapter of Deca (Distributive Education Clubs of America) is quite active in intercollegiate competition.

At the State Career Development contest at Johnson County Community College, eleven students from BCCC competed and nine students won trophies.

Six students from Butler qualified to attend the national contest in Miami, Florida where Mark Dillman and Dona Lawless were national finalists. Kristie Williams was one of the five at nationals to receive a competency award in the new food marketing series.

Dr. Herman Ogg is sponsor of the group.

Debaters Win; Debate Loses Out

Debate became a controversial issue at BCCC this year.

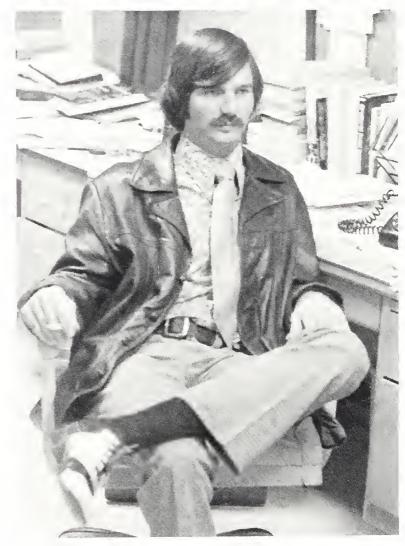

A new debate coach, Charles DeBerry, arrived on campus in the fall to build up a faltering program.

Early in the season two freshmen debaters, Steve Dickson and Susan Biller, emerged to comprise the squad for the remainder of the year.

The two debaters and the coach travelled thousands of miles gaining experience. Two fourth place tournament wins were garnered including the regionals at Hutchinson.

The team and the coach went to Sacramento, California to the nationals where the debaters did not place but received a certificate of excellence.

Early second semester official word was given that the debate program was being dropped after this year for budgetary reasons.

Achievements Are Varied

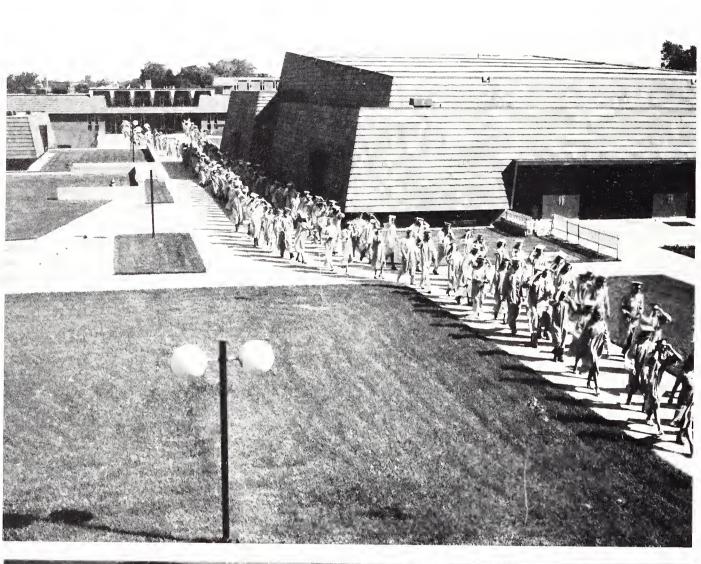

AWARDS AT THE ATHLETIC BANQUET sponsored by the Booster Club were received by a number of students. Four of the recipients included Al Elber for being the best-conditioned athlete in off-season; Jim Houser for being named the most valuable player on the football team; Alvin Clark for being the outstanding defensive player; Steve Hall for being the outstanding offcnsive player.

Businessman Addresses 1975 Graduates

The 1975 graduates of Butler County Community College heard a commencement address by Frank L. Carney, a Wichita businessman, on May 16 in the Field House.

Mr. Carney, along with his brother, was co-founder at a young age of an international chain of businesses specializing in the franchising of pizza serving operations. He is president of the firm today.

Mr. Carney stressed the fact that with hard work, determination, and a great deal of luck, there is still opportunity today for the Horatio Alger type "rags to riches" success story.

Candidates for the Associate of Arts and Associate of Applied Science degrees included 194 students.

Order Of The Purple' Honors Scholarship

The Order of the Purple scholastic honors were conferred upon seniors who had maintained a 3.25 grade point average or above for four semesters.

Candidates for the Order were honored at a banquet in April given on the campus by the College.

The society was organized at the college in 1937 in order to recognize the scholastic achievement of students.

'It's Never Too Late': Elsie Shook

Elsie Shook

Elsie Shook, a gentle but determined lady of seventy-five years of age, is proof that "learning is living."

Mrs. Shook is a 1975 spring graduate of Butler County Community College. She proudly walked down the aisle at commencement to receive her Associate of Arts degree to the sound of a standing ovation.

Butler's oldest graduate received her high school diploma at Atchison, Kansas in 1918. She then interrupted her formal education to marry, rear her children, and help rear her grandchildren.

Mrs. Shook enrolled at Butler in 1971 to take a night class, and she was smitten with education. Her emphasis has been on psychology and religion.

The oldest graduate declares: "When you keep thinking, you keep living."
